Tehachapi Valley Art Association, Inc. (TVAA) is an association of artists, craftspeople, and other persons whose primary purpose is to promote the production, presentation and appreciation of the arts in the Tehachapi area.

What does TVAA do?

- Hosts twelve fine art shows per year and holds a First Friday Art Reception each month for the featured artist.
- Sponsors and hosts three annual Art and Craft Fairs
- Sponsors and hosts the All Tehachapi Youth Art Contest in April
- Sponsors and hosts Chalk on the Walk in August
- Sponsors and hosts two annual photography contests for the community (Feb. & Aug.)
- Sponsors and hosts an annual "Eggstravaganza" egg decorating contest
- Raises money to fund art scholarships for high school seniors
- Supports various art related local events,
- Sponsors Gallery 'N' Gifts, a cooperative art and craft retail store featuring local artists

TVAA is governed by a Board of Directors, which meets on the second Monday of each month; general membership meetings are held monthly on the fourth Monday. TVAA members need not be local residents. Membership in TVAA does not necessarily guarantee acceptance in TVAA-sponsored fairs or shows, nor into the Gallery – these require additional application and approval.
